- The document consists of two main sections. The first section lists the following 5 requirements of the martyrdom pledge:
 1. The pledge must be signed twice, once in Syria and once again in Iraq.
 2. The individual must fill out a foreign fighter questionnaire.
 3. A personal photo and a copy of the individual's passport must be submitted.
 4. The future martyr must enroll in a security course or read a security briefing.
 5. The pledge must be signed.

- By signing the pledge Abu Ahmad agreed to the following points:
 1. He has entered Iraq for the sole purpose of carrying out a martyrdom operation. He has taken this decision of his own free will and does not intend to become a combatant upon entry into Iraq.
 2. He agrees to obey all commanders and superiors.
 3. If he does not execute his intended operation the organization is only responsible to send him out of Iraq.
 4. He agrees not to reveal any information to any outside entity.

- Abu Ahmad completed the document by providing his name, alias, signature and thumbprint.

Pledge and an Agreement

I Khalaf Ahmad Nawfal al-Rashdan, alias Abu Ahmad [TC: handwritten] pledge my commitment to the following:

- 1- That my request to enter Iraq to conduct a martyrdom operation emanates from my own desire; and I have no hidden desire in becoming a fighter, after my entrance, and I pledge my oath on the matter.
- 2- To obey, through invigorating and adverse times, my leaders and those who are in charge of me.
- 3- In case I do retreat from executing [TC: the mission], the organization is not committed to me with anything except taking me out of Iraq in the way it sees fit.
- 4- I will not reveal any information to any party, under any circumstances.
- 5- I pledge my oath in the name of God the Almighty to abide by what has been agreed upon in this contract, and not to back out under any circumstance and here to, I sign.
